1. PURPOSE

<sup>1</sup>TruCap Finance Limited and its subsidiaries (collectively “the Company/TruCap”) believes that a good record keeping program is fundamental to the Company’s commitment to administrative transparency and accountability. The purpose of Policy for Preservation and Archival of Documents (“Policy”) is to ensure that necessary records and documents of the Company are adequately protected and maintained and to ensure that records that are no longer needed by the Company or are of no value are discarded at regular interval. The Company understands that records form an essential and significant part of the Company’s resources.

This Policy is prepared and approved by the Board of Directors pursuant to the provisions of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulation, 2015 (“Listing Regulations”), applicable provisions of the Master Directions issued by Reserve Bank of India (“RBI”).

2. RECORDS APPRAISAL PROCEDURE

The records appraisal process shall involve making a considered and formal judgment, often after considerable research, that certain records have enough value to warrant a considerable and continuous expenditure of funds for preserving them. In general, the Company shall consider the following factors while deciding on whether or not documents are to be preserved. However, these are the guiding principles and the Company shall not be rigidly bound by them. They shall serve as an aid for the respective operational/functional departments of the Company in making decisions for preservation of documents:

- Whether the records are statutory documents required by the various regulatory authorities from time to time.
- Whether the information contained in the document is generally available.
- Whether the values possessed by the records is purely informational or of some intrinsic value.
- Assessment of the user’s needs for the document- whether it is of active use, semi- active use (not of current use but referred to on occasions) or is rarely or never needed for reference.

3. MANNER OF PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS

a) Methodology of preservation:

The Company may primarily utilize any one or more of the following in preserving the records:

- i. Department or function wise.
- ii. Subject or topic wise.
- iii. Chronologically
- iv. Such other method as the Departmental heads may consider appropriate, so as to fulfill the following objectives:
  - a. To meet legal standards for protection, storage and retrieval.
  - b. To optimize the use of space and minimize the cost of record retention.

The documents/records can be stored in physical/electronic form as print-outs of data stored in a floppy, disc, tape or any other form of electro-magnetic data storage device. However, Vendor invoices if not digitally signed should be stored in originals.

b) Security and security conditions:

The records should be stored in conditions that are secure and clean with low risk of damage. Records of non-paper format shall require special storage conditions and handling process, after taking into account their specific character. Similarly, records of continuing value and requiring longer preservation shall require a higher quality of storage.

4. DURATION OF PRESERVATION

The minimum retention requirement of the different categories of the company records is provided in the Retention schedule which is disclosed by way of Annexure to this Policy.

5. DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS

Records which no longer serve a useful purpose or have completed their period of preservation may be destroyed. Record destruction can also improve operational efficiency by reducing the quantity of records to be searched in order to locate the needed information. Mode of destruction shall include (but not limited to) the following:

- i. Confidential paper records: may be destroyed by making them unreadable.
- ii. Non-confidential paper records- may be sold to waste- paper dealers or recycled.
- iii. Electronically stored records- may be erased or destroyed with the help of the IT Department.

The record of destroyed document to be maintained by the concerned department will be maintained permanently.

6. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITY OF VARIOUS DEPARTMENTAL HEADS

- i. The department heads must be familiar with this Policy and educate their department in this regards.
- ii. Restrict access to confidential records and information.
- iii. Must coordinate in the destruction of the records when required.

7. REVIEW/REVISION OF POLICY

If at any point a conflict of interpretation / information between the Policy and Applicable Laws arises, then interpretation of the Applicable Laws shall prevail.

In case of any amendment(s) and/or clarification(s) to the Applicable Laws, the Policy shall stand amended accordingly from the effective date specified as per the Applicable Laws. The Board reserve (s) the right to alter, modify, add, delete or amend any of the provisions of the Policy.
